

Programme funded by the European Union

Romania-Ukraine
ENI-CROSS BORDER COOPERATION

Call for proposals
Guidelines for grant applicants – SOFT projects

ANNEX E

Project title	Promote deadwood for resilient forests in the Romanian-Ukrainian cross border region (RESFOR)
Organisation	”Ștefan cel Mare” University of Suceava

Job description

Job Name	Researcher 1 (forest biodiversity)
Job Level	executive
Main purpose	Conduct field studies, process scientific data
Specific conditions for the job	Good knowledge of forest ecosystems functions; good knowledge of quantification of forest biodiversity techniques
Studies required for the job	University diploma – Bachelor’s degree in Forest science PhD diploma in Biology or Environment science
Training	-
Computer skills	Proficient with Microsoft Office software including Excel, Word, PowerPoint
Languages	English proficiency
Working experience	At least 10 years’ experience in forest research (forest biodiversity)
Skills required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Knowledge of scientifically aspects related to forest biodiversity</li> <li>• Knowledge of the science of forestry, including forest biodiversity, forest products, species identification and forest ecology.</li> <li>• Knowledge of the principles, practices, and problems of forest field activities and data processing.</li> <li>• Knowledge of the methods of surveying, mapping, and estimating forest stands.</li> <li>• Ability to perform technical forestry studies and to prepare technical reports and articles</li> <li>• Ability to write scientific studies and to prepare technical reports and scientific articles</li> </ul>
Specific requirements
Responsibilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Develop scientific methodologies and sampling methods for the</li> </ul>

Programme funded by the European Union

Romania-Ukraine
ENI-CROSS BORDER COOPERATION

Call for proposals
Guidelines for grant applicants – SOFT projects

ANNEX E

	research studies. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Provide input into the development of harmonized methodology for quantification of forest biodiversity</li> <li>• Provide support in creation of project transboundary network of researchers and experts</li> <li>• Contribute to project results dissemination (writhing scientific papers, oral communications and scientific reports)</li> <li>• Elaborate scientific studies based on field data</li> <li>• Conducts timber surveys designed to collect experimental data.</li> <li>• Provide support for assembling and organizing of results into comprehensive summaries.</li> <li>• Develops and approves plans and specifications for the completion of forest-type maps and sampling procedures in the field.</li> </ul>
--	---

Acknowledged,
Name / surname

Signature,

Date,

Approved,
Name / surname / function

Prof.dr. ing. Valentin POPA, Rector

Signature,

Date,